AVI-SPL Restructures Systems Integration Leadership

Andy Olis promoted to Senior Vice President, Integration - West

TAMPA, Fla. June 2, 2010 – AVI-SPL, a leading provider of audio video communications solutions, today announced a restructure of the Systems Integration Group.

Joel Dougherty has transitioned from leading the Integration team in the South to managing special projects in a newly-created position: Vice President, Integration Initiatives. In this new role, Dougherty will be responsible for any special integration projects.

As part of the restructure, the Systems Integration territories have been realigned from the previous North / South division to the updated East / West territories.

Andy Olis has been promoted to Senior Vice President, Integration for the Western territory. Chris Bianchet, Senior Vice President, Integration, was formerly responsible for the Northern territory, but has transitioned to leadership of the Eastern territory.

“Through these changes, we significantly strengthen our Integration Team,” said Don LaNeve, Chief Operating Officer, AVI-SPL. “Joel, Andy and Chris bring a wealth of experience and knowledge to their roles and I expect great things from them in the months ahead.”

Olis has been with AVI-SPL for three years, and, in his previous position, served as General Manager for the Detroit office. Olis will continue to work from the Detroit office in his new position.
